

The 2017 Legislative Action Summit

The new Congress needs new ideas. Yours.

Get face to face with lawmakers in Washington, D.C.

What if you could shape the laws that impact your property and the hospitality industry as a whole? Thanks to the 2017 Legislative Action Summit (LAS) you can. LAS gives you the rare opportunity to meet with the member of Congress representing your district and make your voice heard about the issues that really matter to you. You'll spend two days in Washington D.C. attending impactful meetings and programs while comparing notes with hundreds of your colleagues.

The new Administration and Congress is taking action that directly impacts your business. Don't miss the chance to influence the rules and make it easier to elevate your property. LAS is brought to you by the American Hotel & Lodging Association (AHLA) and the Asian American Hotel Owners Association (AAHOA) as they unite the hotel industry to show what we can accomplish together.

Legislative Action Summit • May 17 - 18, 2017 • Capital Hilton • Washington, D.C.
